PREPARING CANTATA AT

Superintendent Cullen, of the Zon, will leave for Phoenix, Ariz, at an early date to purchase a flock of ortriches which is offered him at a hargain. Mr. Cullen says he can easily cosell one-third of the flock and procure enough to cover the entire purchase price of the flock.

Mr. Cullen is one of the few men in the United Staten, outside of the regular ostrich farms of Hot Springs, Ark., Florida and the West, who has ever had any success raising the ble birds. He proposes to operate a regular ostrich hatchery and in time develop the ostrich farm at the Zoo to a large extent. On the evening of Sunday, Dec. 28, the choir of St. Luke's parish will render an elaborate musical program under direction of Harry T. Adams. The sacred cantata, "The Ten Virgins," will be sung, it being one of unusual cauty and requiring many voices of merit. Assisting the choir will be a number of soloists.

Rendition of this cantata will be the chief Christmas music at this church and rehearsals have been under way for some time.

WILL SING CAROLS.

The Girl Scouts' choir, under the direction of Miss Emma Adams, is preparing a program of beautiful Christmas carols to be sung on several different occasions during the holidays.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN.
